

Gramatyka: test wyboru

1. We ... with my brother's family until we ... a flat of our own. {b}

- a. live / buy                      b. are living / buy      c. are living / will buy                      d. live / will buy

2. More and more teachers ... smartphones in their lessons. {c}

- a. would use                      b. use                      c. are using                      d. will have been using

3. And do you know this one about an old man who ... to the doctor's and ... 'Doctor, Doctor'. {a}

- a. goes / says                      b. is going / is saying      c. went / have said                      d. has gone / said

4. There's no need to set the date for the meeting, I guess because we ... each other in the gym anyway every weekend. {d}

- a. will have seen                      b. have been seeing      c. see                      d. will be seeing

5. You ... about the accident by now, I assume. {c}

- a. aren't going to read                      b. won't read                      c. won't have read                      d. won't be Reading

6. When Jack ... in primary school he ... his maths homework which made his mum furious as she was a maths teacher there. {d}

- a. has been / has been constantly forgetting                      b. had been / was constantly forgetting                      c. was / constantly forgot                      d. was / was constantly forgetting

7. You shouldn't be surprised that I'm limping as I ... my ankle in the mountains. I'll never go skiing again! {d}

- a. used to twist                      b. had twisted                      c. twisted                      d. have twisted

8. Teenagers caught stealing at school ... their deeds by doing 10 hours of voluntary work. {c}

- a. have made repaying                      b. is made to repay      c. are made to repay                      d. make the repay

9. My father .... as an excellent science-fiction writer. {b}

- a. got to be known                      b. was known                      c. had been known                      d. might have known

10. The building was known ... during the last war. {c}

- a. to had been damaged      b. to being damaged      c. to have been damaged      d. to be damaged

11. The love letter is believed ... by Shakespeare himself! {a}
 a. to have been written      b. to write      c. being written      d. to has been written 12. Mike ... another scholarship recently only because of his high educational achievements. {b}
 a. will be awarded      b. has been awarded      c. would have been awarded      d. is awarded 13. My cousin ... the schedule the teacher prepared for him and study hard or he won't pass his exams this year. {c}
 a. Is to be following      b. should have followed      c. had better follow      d. would better follow 14. The manager ... for the whole dinner. {a}
 a. insisted on paying      b. insisted to pay      c. has insisted to have paid      d. has insisted on being paid
15. Jane asked him ... being a well-known pianist. {b}
 a. if he were enjoying      b. whether he enjoyed      c. did he enjoy      d. of enjoying 16. Mum suggested that he ... lemon ice-cream this time. {c}
 a. mustn't try      b. tries      c. try      d. would try 17. Brendan ... too many books to read in the semester. {a}
 a. complained of having      b. complained to have had      c. complained having      d. complained that he have has 18. My aunty from New York came to visit us and I couldn't believe how many .... with her. {c}
 a. presents did she have      b. she had presents      c. presents she had      d. presents had she 19. Turn the music down, Len! It's so loud I can hardly hear what... to me! {a}
 a. Greg is saying      b. is Greg saying      c. does Greg say      d. that Greg is saying 20. I really wanted to pass this exam well so my teacher insisted that ... me with preparing for it. {a}
 a. she help      b. she will help      c. she helps      d. she did help 21. When my pet rabbit died my older sister told me ... sad and promised to get me a new one for my birthday. {d}
 a. not be      b. don't be      c. to not be      d. not to be
22. Mary was looking for the post office but didn't really know ... she should ask. {d}

a. which                                      b. whose                                      c. who                                      d. whom

23. ... happened! {b}

a. That we wanted                      b. What we wanted                      c. Which we wanted                      d. What did we want

24. ... proper education is important. {a}

a. Whether a child gets                      b. Does a child get                      c. If a child gets                      d. Should a child get

25. Having friends depends on ... time for them, not money. {c}

a. have you                                      b. that you have                                      c. whether you have                      d. if have you

Słownictwo: test wyboru

26. Are you completely ...!? Stop playing this those matches! {c}.

a. insane                                      b. non-sane                                      c. insane                                      d. unsane

27. Are you really going to ... everything I told you about this school and enroll? {a}

a. disregard                                      b. irregard                                      c. unregard                                      d. ilregard

28. ... can kill even the strongest feeling, so beware! {b}

a. untrust                                      b. distrust                                      c. iltrust                                      d. intrust

29. Jackson seems completely .... of working peacefully in a group. {d}

a. discapable                                      b. noncapable                                      c. incapable                                      d. incapable

30. Many enemy soldiers got caught and .... {a}

a. disarmed                                      b. unarmed                                      c. misarmed                                      d. illarmed

31. After hearing Keith's ... reply I felt sorry for him. The boy needed a teacher, and fast. {b}

a. disarticulate                                      b. inarticulate                                      c. unarticulate                                      d. nonarticulate

32. 'I honestly don't need your ... advice! Will you please leave me alone?' {d}

a. desolicited                                      b. irsolicited                                      c. imsolicited                                      d. unsolicited

33. .... love is the feeling we usually remember most from our teenage years. {c}

a. misrequited                                      b. disrequited                                      c. unrequited                                      d. irrequited

34. Have you really bought a/an ... boat? But it could have been stolen! {b}

a. nonlicensed                                      b. unlicensed                                      c. illicensed                                      d. dislicensed

35. The example you gave is a very ... one. Could you think of another one, maybe? {a}

a. atypical                                      b. intypical                                      c. mistypical                                      d. nontypical

36. 11. Our school volunteer club has recently decided to ... for animal charity. {b}

- a. earn                      b. raise                      c. rise                      d. rose 37. Those types of phone use an optical zoom ... with a 3X5 range. {d}
a. lense                      b. lenses                      c. len                      d. lens
38. The mechanic reached for a heavy ... to undo a really tight fitting nut. {c}
a. pliers                      b. tongs                      c. spanner                      d. screwdriver 39. When Nick became the ... of the zoo his job was to show people around and give talks on endangered species. {b}
a. guard                      b. curator                      c. principal                      d. exhibitor 40. Tony has been thoroughly ... in astronomy since the field trip with his class. {a} a.
absorbed                      b. disappointed                      c. interested                      d. occupied 41. Have you ever thought of ... your ambition of becoming a translator, Ned? {c}
a. completing                      b. following                      c. realising                      d. impostig
42. When the competition was over the runners took a lap of... waving to the crowd. {b}
a. victory                      b. honour                      c. winning                      d. success 43. Harry's teacher made no ... to his misbehaviour during the summer camp and the boy was truly grateful for it. {a}
a. reference                      b. gesture                      c. implication                      d. mention 44. The ending of her story sounded too ... for all of us and we looked at her with mistrust and disbelief. {d}
a. outproven                      b. outright                      c. outlaying                      d. outlandish
45. The story of a Loch Ness monster has been a/an ... mystery for years now. {b}
a. perilous                      b. baffling                      c. unsettling                      d. trustworthy 46. The teacher frowned at the ... of my email. Well, I had no choice but to rewrite it. {a}
a. layout                      b. outline                      c. outlooks                      d. lookout
47. When reading a book I usually jump straight to the first chapter but the ... at the beginning of this book was so interesting that I read it twice! {d}
a. editorial                      b. output                      c. summary                      d. preface
48. My mum used to be a secretary and she knows how to take notes ... {a}
a. in shorthand                      b. illegibly                      c. tuning in                      d. by character
49. If I were you I'd consult a/an ... before trying to assemble those drawers. {a}
a. manual                      b. bulletin                      c. reference book                      d. index
50. The local papers ... the event well and hundreds of people turned up. {b}
a. forecasted                      b. publicised                      c. published                      d. broadcasted

Słotwórstwo

Match the idioms with their meaning. Be careful as 5ere's one answer to many!

51. Diane finally found ... when she appeared in a film made by a famous Hollywood producer.

FAMOUS {fame}

52. The teacher tried really hard but the new students wasn't very ... and didn't answer any of the questions. RESPOND {responsive}

53. When I asked my dad if I could stay out late on Saturday night his answer was a/an ... 'no'.

DECIDE {decisive}

54. The tradition of dressing a Christmas Tree ... in Germany, right?

ORIGIN {originated}

55. Since flu is so highly ... you should get vaccinated.

INFECTION {infectious}

56. Can you please make sure that all the electrical ... in the kitchen are turned off?

APPLY {appliances}

57. Joe wrote a ... essay but the teacher rejected as saying it contained too many details.

LONG {lengthy}

58. I've never liked carrot cake and I knew it would taste ... even before I tried it.

HORROR {horrible}

59. Jessica has never even imagined she could be working as a/an ... for the FBI.

INFORM {informant}

60. Everytime my cat break something I see this ... grin on its mouth - I swear!

DEVIL {devilish}

Wisielec

61. Haven't you got a _ _ c _ _ _ c _ you could take with you at the camp? It would be more comfortable than a suitcase as you could carry it on your shoulders. {rucksack}

62. When your dad was a boy people didn't use GPS but an old fashioned map and a _ _ m _ _ _ _ to find their way. {compass}

63. During this weekend we can expect over a hundred _ _ h _ _ _ t _ _ _ presenting their products at the book fair in Poznań. {exhibitors}

64. This running event is highly popular as it's open to professionals as well as to _ _ _ t _ u _ _ she had since she was born on her left shoulder. {amateurs}
65. The young guitarist is expecting his first _ _ y _ _ _ y payment as his brand new CD has just been released. {royalty}
66. I hope that public TV will be able to _ r _ _ _ c _ _ _ the match as I can't watch EuroSport channel at home. {broadcast}
67. I always check the _ _ n _ _ n _ _ page first. If it says that there are over 10 chapters in a book I don't read it - it's too long for me. {contents}
68. There are five _ u _ _ e _ _ _ boards on the walls of our school corridor. Students and teachers put there different information, pictures or posters prepared by the children. {bulletin}
69. 'You have points taken away for both _ _ n _ _ u _ t _ _ _ and spelling mistakes, so if you forget to put a colon you'll lose priceless points. {punctuation}
70. Mum brought dozens of holiday _ r _ _ _ r _ _ home yesterday and now we need to choose where to spend our summer vacation. {brochures}
71. Carl is a fan of _ _ b _ o _ _ _ . He enjoys reading about scandals and famous people and detests serious political news. {tabloids}
72. 'To be or not to be, that is the question,' he _ _ o _ e _ from Shakespeare. {quoted}
73. 'Do you know the _ _ b _ _ v _ _ _ i _ _ of the phrase 'for example?' 'Sure, it's e.g.' {abbreviation}
74. When Mary saw the exam results and realised that she failed she was on the _ _ r _ _ of tears. {verge}
75. '_ _ m _ _ r has it that the vice principal has been sacked!' 'I don't believe it, it's just gossip.' {rumour}